

HAY CROP INCURS SERIOUS DAMAGE

Parasite Attacks Alfalfa and Heavy Rains in Utah Ruin Large Acreage.

PEST IS PECULIAR ONE IS NOW BEING STUDIED AT AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

Parasites which have attacked the alfalfa fields in several sections of the state have done considerable damage. According to Joseph Hyrum Parry, in addition to this, the recent heavy rains, descending while the hay crop was being gathered, are said to have ruined a large acreage. About one-fourth of Utah's hay is declared to be unfit for market.

Mr. Parry says that the alfalfa parasite first made its appearance last year when the first crop of alfalfa was about half grown. The insects ate the soft portions of the leaves of the plants, leaving the fibrous portions untouched. The pests were also noticed when the second crop was growing, but disappeared before the alfalfa was ready to harvest.

This year, he says, the parasite was again noticed, but in some sections the number was less than last year. In some fields in Salt Lake county, however, the pest proved very destructive. As the insects began their work of destruction in May, and disappeared in July, Mr. Parry is of the opinion that the alfalfa was eaten by the larvae of some insect which, on maturity, sought other food.

Mr. Parry says that a study of the alfalfa parasite is being made at the Agricultural college at Logan.

Bailey & Sons have sent Paul Banker on a trip through Utah and Idaho to investigate the reports of damage to the hay crop by recent rains. He is expected back about Sept. 1.

Up to the time of the rains, it is said, there were prospects of an unusually heavy crop in Utah. But while the farmers were cutting their hay the rains came and much of the hay was spoiled. The ruined hay includes a large acreage of the finest timothy.

Bailey & Sons estimate that the loss due to the rains will give Utah about the same hay crop as last year, and that prices this winter will be about the same as last.

Hay is now selling at $9.50 a ton for alfalfa and $12 for timothy. Last winter the price of alfalfa was $10 and timothy $12.

"The rains were general all over the state," said Seymour N. Bailey, "and the farmers in all of the counties suffered. But as the losses will still leave Utah with a hay crop about equal to that of last year, the prices next winter will probably be about the same as last."

TEN YEARS IN BED.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." F. J. Hill Drug Co., The Never-Substituted.

STOLE TWO PAIRS OF PANTS

Caleb Levy Gets Five Years in Penitentiary on Grand Larceny Charge.

The much maligned word "pants" has been given official sanction by Frederick C. Loofburrow, district attorney. Webster and other similar authorities, give the preference to "trousers," but the district attorney sticks to the time honored designation of man's nether garments in an information filed against Caleb Levy, charging grand larceny.

Levy pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Ritchie yesterday morning, and was given five years in the penitentiary for stealing "two pairs of pants," two gold watches, two watch chains and five gold rings from L. Webber.

The "pants" were valued at $10 and $3 respectively, and the district attorney makes no distinction between the higher priced article and the lower. Modern usage in polite circles is to class everything as "pants" costing less than $5, and above that amount allowing the more aristocratic appellation of "trousers."

IN POLICE COURT.

Charge of Cruelty to Animals Enters Into One Case.

William Clure, charged by Mrs. Julia A. Woods with battery, was before Acting Police Judge Whitaker Friday morning to answer to the charge and was discharged.

It seems that the woman had a month-old puppy in a sack, which she was about to scald to death. Clure protested against the cruelty, and it is claimed by the woman that she wrenched the sack containing the puppy from her hands. In taking the sack from her, Mrs. Woods claims that she received painful injuries at the hands of Mr. Clure. After all the testimony was in, the judge gave both parties a week in neighborhood rows and sent them home.

Ben Vink, the typical hobo, arrested by Lieutenant Shannon Thursday, was in court and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of vagrancy. He was given sixty days on the chain gang.

Paul Braun, Edward Luke and M. J. Vacas, all entered pleas of guilty to the charge of vagrancy and were given a chance to leave the city.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Morse yesterday continued the argument in the application of Della Robbins Wheeler for temporary alimony and suit money with which to fight her suit for divorce against John Robbins Wheeler, until Sept. 2.

M. C. A. members, representatives of the state and city, the heads of educational institutions and the friends of the association who have aided in making the educational work a success.

At this celebration the international certificates will be distributed to the successful students. Local certificates will be awarded to those students who passed successfully in the examination. There was no international examination. The complete list of certificates to be granted is as follows:

Eagles, returning from the national gathering at Seattle, are still passing through Salt Lake on their way eastward. Yesterday about fifty of the Eagles representing aeries in New York, Kansas, Missouri and Michigan, arrived here from Los Angeles. Most of them will visit Yellowstone National park before returning to their homes.

They report that the travel upon the various railroad lines is now so heavy that it is difficult to get accommodations in the Pullman cars.

Among yesterday's arrivals were Conrad H. Mann of Kansas City, grand secretary; Dr. C. H. McKinny of Saginaw, Mich., grand trustee, and State Senator Grady of New York, a noted Tammany chief, and chairman of the committee on judiciary of the national organization of the Eagles.

BABY BOY HAD ITCHING HUMOR

Which Broke Out in Different Places—Nothing Would Help Him—Mother Almost in Despair—Skin Quickly Healed Without a Scar and Trouble Has Never Returned

SINCE USING CUTICURA MOTHER GIVES IT PRAISE

"Several months ago, my little boy, now two and a half years old, began to break out with itching sores. I began to doctor him, and as soon as I got them healed up in one place they would break out in another. I was almost in despair. I could not get anything that would help him. One evening I read a testimonial from a lady who had cured her little boy with Cuticura. I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and after using them three times, the sores commenced to heal. He is now well, and not a scar is left on his body. They have never returned nor left him with bad blood, as one would think. Cuticura Remedies are the best I have ever tried, and they are surely great. I shall always have them in the house, handy, and shall highly recommend them to any one who is suffering likewise. I cannot give them too much praise. Mrs. William Geeding, 102 Washington St., Attica, Ind., July 22, 1907."
